

THE WORK OF RELIEF.

Less Demand for Provisions Yesterday than Usual.

SOME ACCEPTABLE DONATIONS

Received at the Committee's Headquarters, and Over Eighty Families are Assisted—Tickets for Employment Under Two of the City Boards Issued to Sixty-five Men.

The store room of the central relief committee at 1223 Market street was open yesterday for the issuing of provisions and other necessities of life. There were not so many applicants as the average on past days, doubtless because the demand for the necessities of life has been so well supplied by the committee. Eighty-three families received such stores as the committee had in hand, including flour, bread, bacon, coffee, beans, hominy, soap, tea, cornmeal and the like. A good deal of coal was also given out.

The forty sacks of flour donated several days ago by Jacob Snyder was delivered yesterday, as were 100 loaves of bread on account of the donation by the Wheeling bakery. M. Heyman & Son donated forty pairs of trousers and fifty pairs of underwear. George M. Snook & Co. sent in fifty pieces of underwear and one lot of hosiery. An unknown donor sent twelve pairs of men's shoes; Mrs. Coleman, one lot clothing; Capt. C. J. Rawling, one barrel of potatoes.

On December 30, William J. Nesbitt was credited with having given one barrel of potatoes. It should have been two barrels.

Up to date almost 700 men have registered as applicants for employment under the city boards. Yesterday comparatively few of those who had received tickets for employment by the board of public works were employed. A few worked cleaning up McCulloch street, in East Wheeling, and about as many loading on the carts the mud already scraped up on the South Side streets. At half-past 4 a larger crowd than on any previous day gathered in the police court room anxious to hear their names read out and receive the ticket which would entitle them to work to-day if there was work to do.

Sixty-five tickets were issued. Of these thirty-five were to the board of public works and thirty to the city gas board. This morning the gas board will put these men to work under expert supervision digging a ditch for an extension of the city gas main on North Washburn street. This piece of work will employ that many men for a number of days.

Last night the board of public works met and audited its pay roll for the work done in the past week or so. The men entitled to pay for work they can find work for in the regular way, and on Thursday. They will be paid in cash instead of the customary order, so that they will have no trouble in securing the money to which they are entitled.

The relief store will be closed to-day, but will be open to-morrow. At half-past four this afternoon the tickets for to-morrow will be issued by the committee at the police court room.

The executive committee met at the chamber of commerce last night. It was the opinion of the members that steps should be taken to furnish more men employment than the city boards can find work for in the regular way, and on motion a sub-committee of five was appointed to confer with the city boards and see what can be done on this line. This committee consists of the chairman of the executive committee, C. B. Hart, Messrs. M. Grogan and Raymond Bauer, Mayor Caldwell and Dr. H. W. Hazlett. The idea of the committee is to find work of a character which would not otherwise be done, men selected by the committee to be employed on it, and their wages to be paid in supplies from the store house.

Secretary Hocking reported that so far 425 families had been relieved at the store, and that these would average at least five persons to the family, so that over 2,000 persons have received necessities of life from the relief committee. The supplies are now nearly exhausted.

The committee will meet again Thursday night at 7:30, at the same place, and all the members should be present.

Chairman Gillespie, of the Pittsburgh relief employment committee, was in the city yesterday. He said the men employed there at $1 a day were doing good, satisfactory work. They have now 2,000 at work and expect to employ more. When told of the work plan it was proposed to adopt here, he expressed his approval.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Jan. 2.—This evening deputy United States marshals summoned a number of parties to the United States court who had been inmates of an institute for the cure of drunkenness. The concern, which was run by some of our most prominent citizens, had used whisky without having a United States license and the object is to indict the men.

Went Skyward. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Jan. 2.—There was quite an explosion at the Kellogg Powder Mills, five miles below this city, at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Wheel house No. 4 went skyward at that hour from some unknown cause and the attendant had just stepped away from it. The machinery and powder went with it with considerable loss.

Married at Weston. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

WESTON, W. Va., Jan. 2.—Eaton Barber, formerly of Grafton, and Miss Mary Meisenger, the popular hotel landlady of Sutton, were married here to-night. Rev. Father Tracy officiating. They were accompanied by Colbert Lynch and Miss Katie Thompson, of Sutton.

pressed his belief that it would be found a very wise one and would do more good than any other system of relief.

A WHEELING SINGER

Makes a Decided Hit in Oratorio in Pittsburgh.

The many Wheeling friends of Mrs. Anne Kennard-Martin will be pleased to know of the fine success made by her in Pittsburgh last Friday evening, the occasion being the rendition of the oratorio of the "Messiah" by the Mozart Club of that city; concerning her work the following is of interest: "One of the most interesting features was the excellent singing of Mrs. Anne Kennard-Martin who sang the difficult soprano roles with great success. Her fine voice and its artistic use won the most enthusiastic applause from an audience so large that many were obliged to stand throughout the performance."

—Leader. "Mrs. Martin deserves hearty praise for her success. The delicious 'Come Unto Him' she sang with simple eloquence, and the trying recitatives that follow the pastoral symphony were delivered with telling effect. Mrs. Martin on this occasion gave signal proof of a reliable musicianship such as is far from common among singers."—Dispatch.

The fact that the other soloists, W. H. Riser, tenor, New York; Heinrich Meyer, basso, Boston; Katharine Fish, contralto, Chicago, are recognized as being in the foremost rank of oratorio singers in this country renders Mrs. Martin's success the more pronounced. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are to give a song recital before the Pittsburgh Art Society this month, and there is a probability of their being heard in Wheeling in a similar manner, which will afford the public an opportunity of hearing them both in various styles of songs and duets and those in which they appear at their best.

LOCAL NEWS.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

The Grand this evening—Arthur Demming's Minstrels.

The public schools reopened yesterday with a large attendance.

The holiday travel on the different railroads was much lighter than usual.

Nor an arrest was made by the police yesterday nor up to 2 o'clock this morning.

The early train on the Wheeling & Lake Erie was not taken off last Sunday, as reported.

Yesterday was another May-like day, bright and warm, with promise of still warmer weather to-day.

Last evening the Maximilian Bavarian society gave a ball at Beethoven hall which was much enjoyed by a large crowd.

The Linsly institute will reopen this morning after the holiday vacation.

The prospects for the rest of the year are good.

The Ritchie foot ball team did not play the Linslys, as has been stated, on New Year's day, but played the Island team at Bridge park, and defeated them by a score of 12 to 0.

A meeting of the cigar manufacturers is called for 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Trades Assembly's hall, to take action on the proposed increase of the internal revenue tax on cigars.

"THE MIDNIGHT ALARM" closed a very successful engagement at the Grand last evening. This evening Arthur Demming's minstrels and a fine farce comedy company will appear for one night only in the new skit, "A Stranger." It has made a hit wherever it has been seen so far.

"The Prize Winner."

"The Prize Winner" is the title of a new comedy-drama written by Dr. E. A. Wood and James K. Carey, of Pittsburgh, for Charles A. Gardner, the inimitable German dialect comedian and great singer, who will produce it in this city at the Opera House, matinee and night, next Saturday, with new scenery and costumes and a company of talented actors. The new work is not a one-part affair, but, besides the principal role of Karl, assumed by Mr. Gardner, it has well defined and strong characters. It is a play full of human interest, with realistic scenes and situations that are possible and natural. Karl is a Turner and wins the prize at a "fest" of his brethren of the Turnverein, and from this "fest" the plot is developed, and love and heroism is revealed.

THE BOSTON FIRE.

The Globe Theatre Completely Destroyed. Other Buildings Damaged.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 2.—For the second time in its history the elegant Globe theatre, now owned by Mr. John Stetson, and up to last night occupied temporarily by the Hanlons' "Superba" company, has fallen a victim to fire. At one time it seemed as if a repetition of Boston's typical big fires was imminent, but by good management on the part of the fire department the loss was restricted to the theatre building and the brick structure adjoining, called the Globe cafe, and, in a less degree, the new building owned by the Harvard college trustees, on the northwest corner of Washington street and Hayward Place, and the building owned by the Bryant and Stratton college, on the south side, and the Keaton clothing store.

The fire quickly spread to the Globe cafe and the adjoining buildings above mentioned. The hotels opposite, notably the Reynolds and Clark, as soon as the situation was appreciated, threw open their doors for the reception of such articles as could be rescued, and for the accommodation of persons who might be burned out.

From the windows of these buildings the sight of the raging conflagration opposite was grand in the extreme. Huge tongues of flame and millions of sparks from the conflagration shot straight in the air for a height of 100 feet. In the tremendous confusion the hydrogen tanks used by the Superba company. At 3 o'clock the fire in the centre of the play house had been put out and on the Essex street side the fire was practically extinguished, there being no signs of its fury save a mass of water soaked and smoking timbers. At 3:30 the fire was confined to the cafe back of the theatre. The Lincrusta decorations held the flames and the firemen had to tear them in pieces in order to get at the blaze. About $350,000 is estimated as the loss.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Haps and Mishaps in the Whirling City Across the River.

Hiram McCombs died yesterday at the family residence on West Hanover street, aged sixty-five years, from paralysis. The deceased was born in Marshall county, W. Va., and had lived in Martin's Ferry since 1887. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and was engaged in the feed business on Broadway until he was stricken with paralysis two years ago. He was an excellent citizen and well respected. A wife and three children survive him. The children are E. E. and Charles and Mrs. Grant Sedgwick. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. The interment will be at Elm Grove.

Last night the Standard Building Association elected the following directors: Samuel Westwood, L. W. Inglebright, J. P. Crowl, J. W. Millard, Jesse Selby, Hayward Long and J. A. Bayless.

The bicycle offered to the young man who secured the greatest number of new members for the Y. M. C. A. is now owned by Ross Pickens. He was the lucky man. The wheel is valued at $150.

Several puddling furnaces and mills at the Yema-Standard resumed yesterday. Mill No. 6 was unable to start on account of an accident.

Howard Smith and Thurman Selby returned to Lafayette college yesterday and Ed Arbaugh and James McDonough to St. Vincent.

The installation of the newly elected officers of Onward Lodge I. O. O. F., has been postponed until next Tuesday evening.

Two hundred and twenty dollars was disbursed among the poor of Martin's Ferry by the township trustees last month.

Hon. A. T. McKelvey is addressing the farmers' institutes of Ohio under the auspices of the state board of agriculture.

The residence of Henry Floto was entered by burglars on Monday night and a gold watch and other articles taken.

Burglars made an unsuccessful effort to enter Thomas Irwin's residence on Third street the other night.

Miss Anna Dean has taken a position in the hospital at the National Military Home near Dayton.
